OVERVIEW

- Foresight Solar Fund Limited ("FSFL" or "the Company") is a Jersey registered, closed-end investment company.
- The Company seeks to provide investors with a sustainable and increasing dividend together with the potential for capital growth over the long-term by investing in a diversified portfolio operating ground based solar assets, predominantly in the UK.
- The Company raised proceeds of £150 million through an Initial Public Offering ("IPO") of shares on the main market of the London Stock Exchange in October 2013.
- The Company raised a further £135 million of gross proceeds under its Placing Programme from the issue of 131,803,232 new Ordinary Shares. In 2015, the Company issued and bought back into Treasury 28,152,143 Ordinary Shares.
- Treasury Shares are available to be issued out of Treasury to meet future market demand and provide the Company with the flexibility to take advantage of investment opportunities in the market.

PORTFOLIO, PERFORMANCE AND OUTLOOK

- On 31 March 2016, the Company announced that it had reached Financial Close on a £160 million long-term debt facility. This facility wholly refinanced the Company's £150 million short-term acquisition facility previously in place.
- In addition, the Company entered into a new £40 million short-term revolving acquisition facility at favourable terms. The short-term facility will provide the Company with the flexibility to take advantage of future pipeline opportunities
- On 26 February 2016, the 30MW Copley asset received accreditation for the 1.3 Renewable Obligation Certificate ("ROC") banding under the Renewable Obligation ("RO") 12-month grace period.
- The fourth and final quarterly dividend of 1.53 pence was paid on 30 March 2016. This payment meant the Company successfully delivered its target 6.10 pence dividend for its second full financial period ending 31 December 2015.
- The Company is targeting a full year dividend for the financial year ending 31 December 2016 of 6.17 pence (6.00 pence inflated by RPI). The first Quarterly dividend of 1.54 pence was approved by the Directors on 25 April 2016 and will be paid on 30 June 2016.
